

Porthole

Sampler

~ Triple Screw Light Ale ~
A German styled light ale, very pale color, light bodied,
slightly spicy with a floral aroma.
Finishes dry and tart.

~White Star IPA~
India Pale Ale

An American interpretation of a classic English ale.
Brewed with both domestic and imported malts and British ale yeast. A smooth malty flavor underlying a huge floweriness of hops with hints of fruit, citrus, and pine with a bitter hop finish.

~ Shipbuilders Oatmeal Stout ~

Brewed with domestic and imported malts, rolled oats, and Northwest hops.
Opaque brownish black in color and very full bodied.
Chocolate aroma, mocha coffee flavor with a creamy
oatmeal smoothness.
Hints of burnt currant and bitter hops.
A deep finish of hops, fruit, roasted grains and oats.

~Boiler Room Nut Brown~

A traditional British styled ale.
Translucent reddish brown in color and medium bodied. Fruity and malty flavor with a firm nutty dryness.
Roasted malt and light hop aroma.

~Captain Smith's Rye~

A German styled amber ale brewed with American malted rye. This produces a complex flavor that's malty, fruity, and spicy. It finishes light, clean, and spicy.
This is a rarely seen style of beer with its distinctive amber color.

~Britannic Best Bitter~
Extra Special Bitter

A traditional British styled ESB.
Amber colored with a fruity, malty, and floral hop aroma with a deep hop bitterness.
