THE BERGHOFF RESTAURANT

17 WEST ADAMS STREET
 CHICAGO, ILLINOIS
 FAMILY OPERATED SINCE 1898

Over 100 years of continuous family ownership, The Berghoff Restaurant has become a dining tradition in Chicago's Loop. What once was a corner saloon in 1898, serving free sandwiches with every nickel stein of Berghoff Beer, has evolved into a modern, full-service restaurant with a staff of more than 200 people.

The Berghoff's dedication to preserving the beautiful, turn-of-the-century architecture of its exterior and interior has resulted in an authentic, old world ambience that is unsurpassed in Chicago. Beyond the front doors, diners are greeted by beautiful murals, hand-crafted stained glass and throughout the oak paneled dining rooms hang photographs of the Columbian Exposition of 1883 and Old Chicago from the Chicago Historical Society's archives.

With the restaurant's unique historic presence, extensive menu and service oriented staff, The Berghoff has earned a strong reputation for quality, value and hospitality.

The following is a sampling of popular dishes from The Berghoff's lunch and dinner Menu, which changes daily and seasonally. The Berghoff also features a Children's Menu for diners 10 years and under.
